

Bidi Vapor California Privacy Notice

Effective Date: March 22, 2022

If you are a California resident, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) provides you with certain rights with regard to your personal information. This Privacy Notice describes how Kaival Brands Innovations Group, Inc. (“we,” “us,” or “our”) collects, uses, sells or discloses personal information of residents of the State of California, either online or offline. This Privacy Notice supplements the information contained in our online Privacy and Cookie Policy.

The term “personal information” is defined in the CCPA as information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. Personal information does not include publicly available information obtained from government records or deidentified or aggregated consumer information that cannot be reconstructed to identify you.

Personal Information We Collect

During the preceding 12 months, we have collected from website visitors, customers, vendors, and other individuals who have interacted with Kaival, the categories of personal information set forth below. Not all of the types of information set forth below may be collected from or about all individuals, however. For example, we may collect different information from vendors than from customers.

Only you, or someone legally authorized to act on your behalf, may make a request under the CCPA related to your personal information. Any request must provide sufficient details so we can evaluate and respond to the request. We may request an individual’s first and last name, email address, mailing address, and/or other information to verify an individual’s identity. If you designate an authorized agent, the agent will be required to submit proof of authorization and you will be required to verify your identity. We will not discriminate against you for exercising your rights under the CCPA. We reserve the right to refuse any requests, in whole or in part, to the extent permitted by law.

Do Not Track

We may track our users’ activities over time and across third party websites to provide targeted advertising. Our Website does not respond to all Do Not Track (“DNT”) signals at this time. In addition, some third party sites also keep track of your browsing activities when they serve you content, which enables them to tailor what they present to you. Please review the privacy policies posted to all third-party websites to confirm if such websites respond to browser DNT settings.

California Shine the Light Act

A business subject to California Civil Code section 1798.83 is required to disclose to its California customers, upon request, the identity of any third parties to whom the business has shared personal information within the previous calendar year, along with the type of personal information disclosed, for the third parties direct marketing purposes. Please note that under California law, businesses are only required to respond to a customer request once during any calendar year. If you are a California resident and would like to make such a request, e-mail us at privacy@kaivalbrands.com with “California Shine the Light Request” in the subject line.
